Mr. Lloyd Shearer
Editor at Large
Parade Magazine
733 Third Avenue
New York, New York 10017

Dear Mr. Shearer:

In your issue of January 9th, one of Walter Scott's Personal responses stated that CIA "uses political assassination as a weapon" that Operation Phoenix "run by the CIA established a new high for political assassinations in Vietnam." Since I have held responsible in CIA for many years and was also (during detached service) responsible for U. S. support to Operation Phoenix, I believe I am uniquely qualified to testify (as I have in public session under oath to Senate Committees) that:

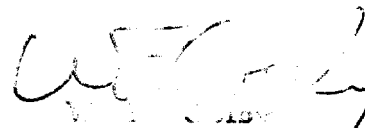

a. CIA does not and has not used political assassination as a weapon.

b. Operation Phoenix was run not by the CIA but by the Government of Vietnam, with the support of the CORDS element of the Military Assistance Command in coordination with several U. S. agencies including CIA.

c. Operation Phoenix is not and was not a political assassination. It countered the Viet Cong apparatus attempting to overthrow the Government of Vietnam by targetting its leaders. Where possible, these were apprehended or invited to defect, but a number were killed in firefights during military operations consisting capture. There is a vast difference in kind, not in degree, between these combat casualties (even including the abuses which occurred) and the victims of the Viet Cong campaign of terrorism to which Mr. Scott quite accurately re-

In order to clarify this important question to the millions of Americans who read Parade, I should appreciate your publishing the

Sincerely,
